PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Urban Designer

RRM Design Group (San Leandro), December 2021 –

- Coordinate interdisciplinary teams of urban designers, planners, architects, and landscape architects in Statewide projects encompassing multiple facets of design, planning, and policy.
- Facilitate community-driven plans and projects by utilizing a range of virtual and in-person engagement strategies to empower a wide net of community members, stakeholders, and decision makers.
- Produce meaningful, high-quality deliverables, aiming for products that are impactful and vibrant while seeking efficiency throughout the project timeline.

Urban Design Associate

PlaceWorks (Berkeley), June 2016 – December 2021

- Engaged multiple disciplines in a variety of collaborative design and planning projects of various scales – including multimodal corridor planning/design, active transportation plans, site design, and community planning.
- Empowered communities through inclusive engagement campaigns and targeted outreach, seeking diverse ranges of input to help shape community-driven plans and projects.

Urban Designer and Planner

Melendrez (now RELM and Here LA, Los Angeles), April 2015 – April 2016

- As part of an interdisciplinary planning, urban design, and landscape architecture team, worked collaboratively on a wide variety of projects including design guides/toolkits, long-range plans, neighborhood-scale urban design projects, and temporary “pop-up” urbanism.
- Embraced an approach to planning and design that is community-driven, place-specific and “people-first.”

Mobility Planner (Interim Position)

City of Los Angeles Department of City Planning, January 2014 – April 2015

- Managed the development and production of Great Streets for Los Angeles: A Complete Streets Design Guide, which is an accompanying document to Mobility Plan 2035 (the city’s updated General Plan Mobility Element).
- Engaged multiple City departments to collaboratively produce design/engineering guidelines supporting streets that work for all users and travel modes.

Space Planning and Organization Consultant

The Well-Ordered Space (Sole Proprietorship, San Francisco), July 2008 – June 2011

- Provided residential clients with a complete, personalized program for home organization and innovative uses of available space.
- Designed flexible, functional, and dynamic office layouts for innovative business spaces.

Architectural Historian

GPA Consulting (El Segundo), December 2007 – September 2008

- Authored architectural descriptions and historical surveys as part of Historic Resource Evaluation Reports and Historic Context Statements. Completed field surveys, photographic documentation, and archival research.
